Acting Up's cast of "Footloose" participated in the Mason Heritage Day parade to promote their upcoming musical "Footloose" which will be presented Sept 26-28 at the Mason High School Theater.

Some of the 75 member high energy cast danced down Main Street behind a No Dancing "protest" truck. In the story of "Footloose," a kid from the big city moves to a small rural town where dancing is illegal. The kids were wearing shirts that said "I can't dance...it scares the grown ups." Or "I can't dance...without getting arrested." Ballots were being passed out to the parade goers to urge them to vote to keep dancing illegal. In reality the "ballots" were fliers that patrons could bring to the show to win a copy of the movie "Footloose" starring Kevin Bacon.

Acting Up's cast from "Footloose" prepare to march at the Mason Heritage Parade August 23.

The show includes well known songs such as "Holding out for a Hero," "Let's Hear it for the Boy," and of course, "Footloose." It will be presented by Acting Up at the Mason High School Theater September 26, 27 and 28. See www.ActingUp.com for more information.
